

FLORIDA ASSOCIATION FOR BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS
announces

A TWO-DAY WORKSHOP

February 10-11, 1983

Hilton Inn
3200 W. Colonial Drive
Orlando, Florida

FEBRUARY 10, 1983

CHANGING THE BEHAVIOR OF HANDICAPPED INDIVIDUALS: LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

Co-Sponsored by H.R.S. District VII Developmental Services, Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resource System, and Florida Association for Behavior Analysis. No admission fee. Limited Seating.

- 8:30 - 11:30 Reed Martin, J.D., author of Legal Challenges to Behavior Modification and Educating Handicapped Children.
- 1:00 - 4:00 Panel Discussion: Legal Issues Related to Behavior Change in Education and Human Service Settings.
- Jerry Martin, Sunland-Orlando, Chair
Jon Bailey, Florida State University
Wendy Cullar, Bureau of Education for Exceptional Students, D.O.E.
Bruce Harter, Governor's Commission on Advocacy for Persons with Developmental Disabilities
Charles Kimber, Developmental Services Program Office, H.R.S.
Reed Martin, Austin, Texas
- 4:00 - 5:00 Reception with Panel Members

FEBRUARY 11, 1983

APPLICATIONS OF COMPUTERS TO BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS AND HUMAN SERVICE SYSTEMS

Sponsored by Florida Association for Behavior Analysis.

No admission fee for dues paid FABA members. Memberships available at the door. Non-member registration fee - $25.00.

The program will feature workshops for beginners and for advanced practitioners. Computers will be used to demonstrate data management, IEP system management, trend analysis, monitoring functions and computer assisted instruction.

FEATURED PRESENTERS:

Ray Romanczyk, SUNY-Binghamton—Comprehensive use of computers in applied behavior analysis.
James Favell and Paul Rasmussen, Western Carolina Center—Review and critique of ready to run applications programs in word processing, data based management, electronic spread sheets, graphics, statistics and application to administration of clinical case management and research.

ADDITIONAL PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

Patrick Quinn, Georgia Regional Hospital—Personal computer use in a residential program for the developmentally disabled.
Dale Brushwood, Orange County Schools—Computer assisted instruction in Orange County School System.
Terry Provancha, Primrose School—Computerized management of student information.
Del Delaney, Developmental Services, District VIII—Practical application of computers for inputting/analyzing client and facility data.
Sanders Bell, Sarasota County School System— Project Recipe

- 8:00 - 9:00 Registration
9:00 - Noon Workshops
1:00 - 4:00 Workshops

HOTEL INFORMATION:

Special rates at the Hilton Inn are available for workshop attendees. Single or double rooms at $35.00 per night (plus tax). Please mail the form below or telephone (800) 432-5141. Be sure to mention the special conference rate. DEADLINE FOR RESERVATIONS: January 27, 1983.

HILTON INN
3200 W. Colonial Drive

HILTON INN
3200 W. Colonial Drive
Orlando, Florida 32808
Telephone: (305) 295-5270

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

ATTENDING _____

ARRIVING _____ TIME _____

DEPARTING _____ TIME _____

From the moment you arrive you'll enjoy courteous Hilton personalized service as well as spacious rooms luxuriously furnished and equipped with color TV, some refrigerators, radio and background music.

Two pools—

Reservations will not be held past 6:00 P.M. without advance deposit.

Please check one:

KING SINGLE

DOUBLE

TWIN DOUBLE

SUITE - APT.