

Dr. William Pelham. Dr. Pelham received his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the State University of New York at Stony Brook. He is an Associate Professor in the Department of Psychology at Florida State University where he is also Director of the Child Study Center. Dr. Pelham is currently on leave and is serving as a Visiting Associate Professor in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of California at Irvine Medical Center. His research has won him many awards and is published regularly in highly regarded journals in psychology and medicine. He has been involved in evaluating the effects of drug and behavioral therapy techniques with hyperactive children for the past 10 years.

Dr. Luke Watson. Dr. Watson is Executive Director of Therapeutic Homes and Chairman of the Board of Therapeutic Environments. He is in private practice in the Ft. Myers-Tampa area and has taught at Case Western Reserve and Ohio State University. His main interests are mental retardation, autism and managing disruptive behavior.

Dr. Judy Favell. Dr. Favell received her Ph.D. from the Univ of Kansas in 1970 and is currently Director of Psychology at Western Carolina Center in Morganton, N. Carolina. She was Chair of the A.A.B.T. Task Force on Self-Injury and is coordinator of the A.A.B.T. Peer Review Committee for Controversial Treatments. Judy is the Editor of the Div. 25 Recorder, the newsletter of Div. 25 of A.P.A. and is an Adjunct Associate Professor with the Univ of Kansas and the Greater Univ of N. Carolina. Her research interests are in the development of treatment for self-injurious behavior, management systems and human services and professional psychological services in retardation and quality assurance systems.

Dr. Jim Favell. Dr. Favell received his Ph.D. from the Univ of Kansas in 1970 and is currently Director of Research and Evaluation at Western Carolina Center, Morganton, N. Carolina. He holds Adjunct Associate Professor positions at the Univ of Kansas and the Greater Univ of N. Carolina. He is on the Editorial Board of Analysis and Intervention in Developmental Disabilities. His research interests are in management quality assurance systems and the delivery of services for the severely retarded profoundly handicapped. He is also one of the leaders in the use of microcomputers in monitoring the delivery of client services.

Dr. Brian Iwata. Dr. Iwata received his Ph.D. in Psychology in 1974 from Florida State University. He is currently Associate Professor in Psychiatry at Johns Hopkins Medical Center in Baltimore where he is Director of Training and Clinical Services in the Department of Behavioral Psychology at the Kennedy Institute. He is the newly appointed Director of the Center for Study and Treatment of Self-injurious Behavior and also the new Editor of the prestigious Journal of Applied Behavior Analysis. Brian is also on the Editorial Board of Applied Research in Mental Retardation and Education and Treatment of Children. His research interests are in developmental disabilities, behavioral medicine and research methodology. This is Dr. Iwata's third visit to Florida to attend and present at F.A.B.A.